

Exhibit No. 1Date 2/16/09Bill No. SB 348

Probable Time Line in re Senate Bill No. 348

- November 2, 2010: General election. Referendum is approved.
- January 3, 2011: 62nd Legislative Session convenes. During this session, the last regular 90 day session, the legislature sets policy on implementation of annual sessions.
- May 2011 through September 2012:

Various transition activities

- 2013: First Monday in February – 63rd Legislative Session Convenes in Budget Session
 - Session is limited to appropriations and revenue matters, with possible exceptions.
 - Session is scheduled to last for 30 legislative days, just over 5 weeks if Saturdays are legislative days, per tradition.
 - Session should adjourn the second week of March 2013
- 2014: Second Monday in January – 63rd Legislative Session Convenes in Regular Session
 - Session is not limited by subject.
 - Session is scheduled to last for 45 legislative days, just over 7 weeks if Saturdays are legislative days, per tradition.
 - Session should adjourn the first or second week of March 2014.
 - Legislative candidate filing opens after Legislature adjourns?
- November 2014 – General election; processes repeat as normal.